Nor do I hear it said that Mr. Wane has not attended properly and faithfully to his duties. He has disappointed none of us who have heretofore so cordially and with such entire unanimity supported him. He has been an attentive, laborious and efficient member.

And yet, Mr. Entroy, I am not in favor of Mr. Wane's re-election, and with your permission I will state my reasons briefly. ason I will state my reasons briefly.

1st. There are other gentlemen in the District, who, it may be said without disparagement to Mr. Wade, are as capable, as faithful and as meritorious as he; and because they are as capable, as faithful and as meritorious, we as capable, as lainful and as heritorious, we would be glad to see them distinguished with the same public confidence which it has been our pleasure and pride to accord to Mr. Want. I select to illustrate my idea, eight names, not of course meaning to intimate that others might not be included in the list: REUBEN HITCHCOCK, SAMUEL WILLIAMSON, FRANKLIN T. BACKUS, ALBERT G. RIBBLE, LESTER TAYLOR, BENJARIN BIRSELL, HIRAM GRISWOLD. WM. L. PERKINS.

These men are all distinguished champions in the Republican ranks. Mr. Ware has been in Congress six years. If it were our pleasure to award the same honor to the above enumerated gentlemen it would require 48 years. 2d. I am in favor of rotation is office us
